Selection Criteria/ Selection Committee

The Selection Committee takes each of the following into consideration when selecting a piece of art each year:

- Quality Art: Originality, good composition, technical competence, presentation (in terms of preservation) and the relevance of the style and development of the artist.
- Inspired by the locale and culture of the Town of Truro and surrounding area: This is secondary but will be considered.
- Medium: The goal is to balance the art collection to include a variety of media. Professional Artwork of all mediums are welcome.

The Selection Committee is composed of:

Representative(s) of a public community art organization or interested citizen.

Two members of Truro Town Council.

The previous year Art Acquisition winners. (excluded if they choose to submit art in current year).
